

EMERGENCY RENT RELIEF

Unable to pay your rent because of the effects of COVID-19?

- Loss of Income
- Reduced hours and wages
- Caring for a household member
- Illness

If so, apply to the Emergency Rent Relief Program. The Program is designed to assist low-income families and individuals who are suffering a temporary financial setback due to the COVID-19 public health emergency and need help with up to one month's rent payment.

You are eligible to apply if:

-  Your primary residence is within the City of Alameda
-  You were current on rent due prior to March 1, 2020
-  You have fallen behind on some portion of your rent payment since the Shelter-in-Place order was announced
-  You can demonstrate a COVID-19 impact on your ability to pay rent

Applications may be submitted at:

WWW.CITYDATASERVICES.COM/ALAMEDA

APPLICATION DEADLINE: AUGUST 10, 2020 AT 4PM

Funding provided by Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) CARES Act or Alameda Strong as funds are available. Applications funded through CDBG must have a total household income that does not to exceed HUD's low-income limits established for Alameda County. See the application for more information.
